

Debra Gearhart, CRM, FAI is a professor teaching Records and Information Management at Wayne State University. Mrs. Gearhart retired in June 2010 from the State of Michigan as the Director of Records Management Services where she led a program in providing retention and disposition schedule development, records center operations, records management training and consultant services to state and local government employees in the State.

As a 38-year member of ARMA, she has served the local chapter at all capacities and has been selected Chapter Member of the Year in 1985, 1989 and 1998. She served ARMA International as Region II Vice President, in 1990-92, on the Education Development Committee, ARMA's Awards Committee and the International Conference Program Committee. She received the prestigious Company of Fellows award from ARMA in 1993.

She received her Certified Records Manager (CRM) designation in July, 1988 and is currently serving as the ICRM Parts 1-5 Administrator, and has previously served as a question writer for Parts 1-6 of the CRM exam as well as Regent for Exam Development, President-Elect and Senior Board Advisor and Chairman of the Board of Regents to the Institute of Certified Records Managers (ICRM). In 2015, Ms. Gearhart won the Alan Andolsen Mentor Award from the ICRM.