

Nicholas J. De Laurentis, IGP, CRM, ITILv3, SCLA, serves as Technology Strategist and Lead Business Automation Analyst supporting Facilities Management solutions for the State Farm enterprise. He is an active leader and speaker in the RIM profession and has served as President of ARMA International's Board of Directors, Chairman of the ARMA International Educational Foundation's Board of Trustees, and most recently Regent, Applicant and Member Relations on the Institute of Certified Records Managers Board of Regents. Nick is a current member of the ICRM Strategic Alliance Committee (SAC). He has been awarded ARMA's Distinguished Service Award in 2014. Nick holds an Information Governance Professional (IGP) certification, a Certified Records Manager (CRM) certification, is ITIL v3 Service Management Fundamentals certified, has completed IAPP Certification Foundation training, and holds a Senior Claim Law Associate (SCLA) designation.