

Mary Frances Janicik, CRM, IGP, is a Risk & Compliance Senior Manager with the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, where she leads the Records and Information Management Department. Prior to joining the Fed, Mary Frances was the Assistant Vice President of Records Management Services with the MassMutual Financial Group. Mary Frances has more than 30 years experience building and leading records and information management programs across multiple industries, including financial services, manufacturing, and utilities. She currently serves as a mentor and grader for the ICRM certification exams. Mary Frances is a former member of the ICRM's Exam Development Committee and the Board of Regents.