

Denise L Pickett, CRM/NS/FED, IGP, has been a Certified Records Manager (CRM) since 1998 and has added the CRM specialty designations of Nuclear Specialist (NS) and Federal Specialist (CRM/FED) in recent years. She is also certified as an Information Governance Professional (IGP). Denise has a BS in Business Administration from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH, and a MBA from Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, FL.

Denise's work career has spanned over 33 years in document control and information management. She started her records management career at a nuclear plant, Wolf Creek. Since then she has worked in many industry segments to include the following: nuclear, federal government, accounting, small business, and county government.

Denise is currently in the role of Director of Records and Information Management at Parkland Health in Dallas, Texas.