

2024 ARMA InfoCon – Add ARMA / ICRM Reception to Existing Registration

Hello,

Thank you for your registration and for your support of ARMA InfoCon 2024. We would like to take this opportunity to share the following exciting update!

We have added the prestigious ARMA/ICRM Joint Reception to the conference schedule on Sunday, October 13 from 6:30-7:30pm. This event is exclusively open to current certification holders from ARMA and ICRM, honoring your exemplary commitment and expertise in the field.

Additionally, professionals interested in pursuing ARMA or ICRM certifications are warmly encouraged to join us, offering a unique opportunity to network and gain insights from leaders in information governance.

To help us adequately plan, pre-registration is required to attend this event. You can add the ARMA/ICRM Joint Reception easily to your existing registration through the ARMA InfoCon 2024 Attendee Service Center. This is an online resource for you where you can edit your registration, update your profile and access important conference updates and information as we get closer to the event.

Following are the steps to take to edit your registration and pre-register for this event:

1. Click on the Service Centers menu from the conference website
