

Dynessa Nordrum, CRM, IGP, CIP, CIGO is the Records Manager for the Port of Corpus Christi Authority in Corpus Christi, Texas. She has more than two decades of experience in records and information management and information governance. She has worked in a variety of industries, including food and beverage manufacturing, agriculture, electric and gas utilities, chemicals, and local government. She currently serves as an assistant writer for Part 5 of the Certified Records Manager Exam. Dynessa has held offices on the ARMA Twin Cities Chapter and ARMA Midwest-Rocky Mountain Region Boards. She has a BBA with a major in Information Management from the University of North Dakota and holds several certifications: Certified Records Manager (ICRM), Information Governance Professional (ARMA), Certified Information Professional (AIIM), and Certified Information Governance Officer (CIGOA).